the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office for National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's health and care. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently and actively; older people should be able to access the services they need; and older people should be able to participate in decisions about their care.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's health and care. These include: to improve the health and well-being of older people; to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; to ensure that older people are able to participate in decisions about their care; and to ensure that older people are able to live independently and actively.

We Learn Life Through Experiences, One At A Time . . .

Together we search in confusion for answers to the mysteries of being alive . . . take my hand . . . we experience the joy of finding ourselves . . . help me decide . . . we learn from each other as well as from books . . . he has a great philosophy on life . . . we strive for excellence but explode at the pressures being too much to bear . . . with one or many we grow and mature, unaware of the change that is occurring in ourselves, noticing it only in others . . . why am I so hurt? . . . we reach out for knowledge and friendship or withdraw into solitude . . . we are separate as 800, together as one—Hanover Central.

Students Engage In Various Activities

Throughout 1972-73 school year, students were involved in various activities. There were things such as GAA initiation and school plays, to boys in Home Ec classes.

Many moods such as love, hate, anger, fear, and frustration were expressed by students in their everyday routines, by the clicking of the camera.

Middle—Randy Watson and Kim Penn study in Biology.

Bottom—Students wait to rush into the gym at lunch.

Middle Right—Kathy Moelhan waits for the bell to ring.

Students of Hanover have been following the changing trends of modern high schools and have been participating more in the affairs of the school.

Agony is felt by actors and actresses trying to remember lines. Anxiety is wondering if the deadlines will be met. Fear is trying to sell candy and fruit to your neighbors.

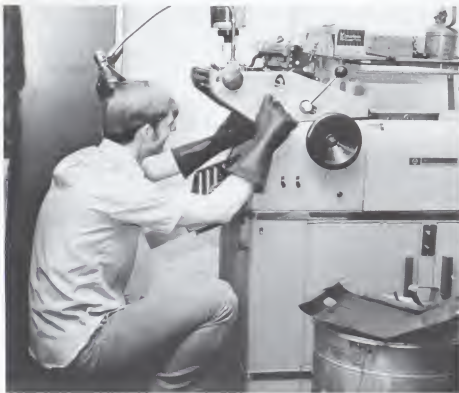

Top Left—Kim Hickson, Robin Drake, and Sheryl Hamlett engage in a conversation as the time to end class draws nearer and nearer.

"FINDERS CREEPERS"

"Finders Creepers" was presented October 26 and 27.

The play concerned two boys, Hercules and Wilbur, who visit Hercules' uncle and find out he is a mortician. Mr. Quigley pretends to be dead in order to find out who is trying to poison him.

Top Left—Bill Wood tries to persuade Randy VanDerWerf he saw a dead body.

"MAN FOR ALL SEASONS"

'Man For All Seasons' was presented March 15 and 16.

The play was about the conflict between King Henry VIII of England and Sir Thomas More.

Because King Henry failed to get a divorce from Catherine, from the Pope, he required his subjects to sign an Act of Supremacy, making him both spiritual and temporal leader of England. Sir Thomas refused to sign the document on the grounds that it was against everything in which he believed, and his very silence eventually led to his death on the chopblock.

In Dedication to Mr. Driscoll

Death Of A School Teacher

No floral cortege followed to his grave,
The whistling wind whispered the litany;
He went his lonely way from memory;
A "pause of silence" none in honor gave;
But if you closer peered, then wave on wave,
Host of disciples paced invisibly,
The city streets; unto eternity
His heart their lifelong pilgrim road would pave;
He'd ever have it so, for he had taught
A man was measured for what cause he fought;
He gave them strength to press to higher goal,
Transcending grief and anguish of the soul;
He sought to mold each child a stalwart oak—
In freedom's cause that neither bent nor broke.

Mr. Maurice Driscoll who passed away October 8, 1972 was a sponsor of the Jr. High Science Club and was science teacher for the Jr. High, also.

On behalf of Mr. Driscoll's family, Mrs. Geck presents the school with the flag that covered Mr. Driscoll's casket. The flag is accepted by principal, Mr. Davis.

Different Things Happen At Hanover.

Top Right, Mr. Young is probably lecturing on another English topic that the class has for an assignment.
Left, Roberta Torrence struggles to do sit-ups.

TEACHERS GIVE KNOWLEDGE FREELY

As Hanover Central changed, so did many teachers. New classes opened and new fields of study were presented to students. Teachers began to slowly accept the students outlook on life.

Middle: Cheryl Hardwick reads for enjoyment.

Right: Betsy Williams and Barb Powers struggle to flip the chicken.

Middle right: Gene Roadlander and Randy Hahn carefully measure a cup of flour for a recipe.

Lower left: As Steve Shroka checks over the fruit list, lettermen anticipate another case of fruit.

Top Right: "And I thought I was stubborn", says Mr. Panning as he is competing in a thrilling game of Donkey Basketball.

Middle Right: Jill Donnelly, Cheryl Baker, and Pam Cannon study for tomorrow's big test.

Top Right: As Jim Westerhoff carefully studies, he remembers that "Practice makes Perfect."

Middle Left: I never knew anything could be so hard", Craig Taylor thinks to himself.

Middle Right: "Oh, my hair!" says Sandy Walsh.

Middle: Coach Nicholas, Bob Cross, and Randy Brown try their hand at making baskets.

My Moods Change With Each Organization . . .

I forgot my brownies . . . turn in your permission slips for the field trip . . . help me take down the flag, it's raining . . . I'm in the French Club . . . there must be some way of making money . . . G.A.A. won their volleyball game last night . . . we have to elect new officers . . . everybody shut up! . . . we need someone to help decorate the halls.

HOMECOMING 1973

Hanover's 5th Homecoming started off with a real streak of color. To help kickoff Homecoming week, the student's participated in Clash Day, Hat Day, 50's Day, Opposite Day, and Color Day. Students also participated on making floats for half time.

During half time, the Queen's Court was announced. As the court gathered in the center of the gym floor, tension mounted and hearts pounded as Miss Linda Plant was announced as Homecoming Queen of 1973.

Ending a week of various moods, a dance was held in the cafeteria. During the dance, Bob Sikma was announced as Mr. Basketball. The dance was held in honor of Homecoming Queen, Mr. Basketball and our great team.

Pam Pitcher leads Homecoming parade with the Art Float. Queen and Court takes final walk for the evening. Queen Linda dances with her escort Pat York to music of the evenings first song. Cheryl Carnell displays one of the Homecoming floats by walking a tricycle around the gym

Wildcat Team Power!

Steve Clement grabs for his opponent's arm in a desperate hurry for points and a pin.

Getting up off the mat, Dave Calhoun gives his opponent a funny look.

In a struggle to save himself, Karl Anderson finds himself in a pretty tight tangled mess.

Jim Welter fights to throw his opponent over and pin him.

Come On! Come On! Says Jim Welter to himself as he pushes the shoulder of his opponent down closer to the mat for a pin.

Bob Suprenant's opponent tries to pull him to the mat.

Breaking down on opponent is the technique used by Gene Roadlander during a match.

Dave Calhoun remembers some quotes called to him as he wrestled. "If you bleed on the mat, rub it in and let it be known to yourself as well as others, that you were there." "You are a part of that mat". "If you're going to wrestle, think wrestling".

Fighting to pin his opponent to the mat, Mike Pasierb works heavily on his opponent's arm.

Mr. Kiechle says, "We didn't reach our potential as a team." There were a lot of injuries which hurt the team as a whole. There were three very outstanding wrestlers such as Gene Roadlander, Mike Pasierb, and Jim Welter. As far as next year, well, I hope to do better and reach the potential which is still there."

Girls Athletic Association

"Use what talents
you posses:
the woods would be very silent
if no birds sang there except those that sang best."

Mary Joan Torrence receives a congratulatory hand shake from the opposing team member.

Shawn Hasse gives a disapproving look after serving the ball over to the opposing team.

Fran Frank shows her emotions after winning a game.

Kim Dowling anticipates hitting the volleyball.

Debbie Sprehe bends in an attempt to return the ball in desperation to score.

Miss Grady and team display team work before returning back to the game.

The ball is thrown to third to get out a base runner to home.

After batting out a Home Run, Terry Walker runs in safely to Home plate.

TRACK TEAM 1973

VARSITY:

Steve Shroka, Robin Holeman, Bill Suprenaut, Rudy Fischer, Jim Welter, Coach Nicholas, Middle Row Left: Dirk Dodge, Nick Mager, Dean Dodge, Bob Schmidt,

Dean Dodge quickens up his pace to win over his opponent and come in second place.

In every team at one time or another, a tragedy hits and someone is hurt.

Nick Mager and Mike Gross hurry along to finish up the last lap.

Steve Shroka slows down a bit at the finish line knowing that he is in first place.

Jim Welter gets ready for the signal to start off the race.

“Beginning a New Generation of Photographic Excellence”

We don't make promises. We make guarantees.

We have too many good things to offer you to make any up. (They're so good you may think we are making them up.) Read on.

We don't guarantee you anything we can't pay off. (If we guarantee you Hawaii, start waxing your surfboard. You'll need it.)

Everything we guarantee will be put down in writing. In a legal document that you get a copy of. (If you agree to sign for computer training and the Delayed Entry Option, it will all be spelled out in language you can understand.)

We want you to know without a shred of doubt that you'll get everything you signed for. So we'll give you this card. On the front is what you signed for. And on the back is an address to write to in the Pentagon, just in case you didn't get what's on the front.

We think today's Army has a lot to offer you. We'll try to convince you of that. That's our job, too.

Your Army Representative.

Tonight Is Ours

Tonight Is Ours' was the theme of the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom, held Saturday, May 12, in the school cafeteria, with the Post-prom at the Log.

Kim Penn was crowned as prom queen. The girls in the court included Gail Buth, Sharon Rogus, Susan Stecyk, and Debbie Watson.

Middle—Prom queen Kim Penn and her escort Randy Watson stroll through the summerhouse.

Bottom Left—Queen's court includes Gail Buth and Bill Jonelis, Queen Kim Penn and Randy Watson, Debbie Watson and Terry Walker, Sue Stecyk and Dave Kenning, and Sharon Rogus and Skip Holeman.

Bottom Right—The prom queen and a few of the candidates carry out the theme "Tonight Is Ours".

"WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN"

On May 27th, the Senior's of '73 gathered together for their last time.

With the girls dressed in light blue and the boys in dark blue, seniors chose "We've Only Just Begun" for their class motto.

Baccalaureate was held at two o'clock in the afternoon with Father McCormick speaking.

Commencement was held at eight o'clock that evening. Speeches were given by Valedictorian Gail Buth and Co-Salutatorians Dave Kenning and Paul Arnold.

Class sponsor Mrs. Norman Lail made it possible and also were active in the program. The class gift was presented by Mark Kinsey. A banner with the school crest was the gift.

Standing in the hall, senior girls await the music. Class sponsor Mrs. Lail presents senior awards. With a smile and a light heart, Toni Acree receives her diploma.

Paul Arnold receives a certificate for outstanding achievements. After his son has graduated dad now feels 20 years younger. The senior boys await their turn to receive their diplomas.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1 million (Office for National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people, and the importance of the role of the family in supporting older people. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out the government's commitment to older people, and the need to support families in caring for older people. The strategy also sets out the need to improve the lives of older people, and to ensure that they are able to live independently for as long as possible.

The Department of Health (1999) has also published a strategy for the care of older people, which sets out the government's commitment to the care of older people, and the need to improve the quality of care for older people. The strategy also sets out the need to ensure that older people are able to live independently for as long as possible, and to ensure that they are able to access the services that they need.
